William E. Lindahl, MBA, CLPF

Executive Director

Will Lindahl is the Executive Director for CPT Institute a national charity with twenty plus years' experience. He provides ongoing education and training for the legal community on protecting government benefits for the injured and at risk.

As the charity's director, he has created one of the lowest cost national trust programs available in America. CPT Institute now operates in forty-eight states and is the nation's leading national charity providing Master Trusts which include Settlement Management Trusts, Pooled Special Needs Trusts, and Minors Trusts.

He feels it is a great privilege to serve the injured and at risk. Will has spent most of his adult life in service to others. Throughout high school he was a volunteer fire fighter and worked on a rescue squad in rural Maine. He spent twelve years as Respiratory Therapist working in multiple intensive care environments and became a member of a Pediatric/Neonatal Helicopter flight team. He also has worked as the State Director of TQM for Columbia Healthcare Corporation as a Medicare and Medicaid auditor.

In addition, he has survived malignant Melanoma and as a result of complications is now visually impaired with eighteen degrees of sight. This unique career history and life experiences are what drives him to spend his life helping others.

With his twenty plus years of experience, thousands of case consults, an MBA from the University of Phoenix and as a California Licensed Professional Fiduciary he is uniquely qualified to train and help the public and legal community protect those living with disabilities and/or at risk.
