Jeremy Sanchez

Director of Operations

Jeremy Sanchez is CPT Institute's Director of Operations and is responsible for overseeing all operational aspects of the charity. This includes keeping up to date with the finances, case management, trust administration, marketing, and training of CPT Institute.

Jeremy received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing in 2015 from California State University, San Marcos. He is thrilled that his personal passions such as organization, design, and mutual respect align with CPT's core values. He is also grateful and humbled to be working for an organization that assists those who are the most vulnerable. Born and raised in San Diego County, Jeremy enjoys spending his time off visiting the local beaches, spending time with his loved ones, and keeping up to date on anything technology and car related.
